

NEW NSFA Membership Benefits - 2019

15% Discount on D & O, Liability, Property and Crime Coverage through AIM Insurance. AIM offers affordable rates, a simple online application process and a 30-year track record of standing behind the organizations they insure in the event of a claim. Receive a cost estimate online or learn more about lowering your insurance costs. Select the National School Foundation dropdown to receive the discount.

$75 Subscription to Grant Station (up to $624 savings). Offered regularly for $699, a one-year subscription to Grant Station will provide your organization with access to a large nation-wide database of grant makers in your community and across the nation. Learn more about Grant Station. To sign up, visit the NSFA Member page. If you need help accessing the site using your member log-in contact info@schoolfoundations.org.

TriNet's HR for Nonprofits reduces the time organizations spend managing HR. Available for foundations with one or more employees, this national PEO plan provides access to cost savings via large group pricing on health, dental, life insurance and 401K plans and a 30% discount on HR services ($60/employee/month) including HR administration and guidance on compliance; a dedicated team of HR professionals, including an employee support center; secure online payroll processing, tax withholdings, remittances, and robust reporting capabilities. Learn more or contact NSFA's TriNet Representative, April Marsland at 561.420.9159 or april.marsland@trinet.com.

Alumni Nations 50% discount on set-up for Alumni Nations, a community engagement provider ($3,250 in savings). Alumni Nations helps to find and nurture community supporters (including alumni), develop a research-based engagement strategy, create a narrative and communications plan, produce content, provide a donor and community relationship management system (CRM), and website (CMS). Learn more

Double the Donation
matching gifts made easy

$50 off the 1st year of Double the Donation's matching gift search tool plugin or $250 off of an upgrade to Double the Donation's enterprise matching gift automation platform, 360MatchPro. Raise more money from corporate matching gifts. Industry-leading matching gift tools designed with your supporters in mind. Double the Donation is the easiest way to boost your matching gift revenue. Learn more and email support@doublethedonation.com to request the NSFA member discount.

15% discount on Watering Can Press books so that as they are requested by teachers or administrators, they may serve your schools, educational efforts, and communities. Watering Can Press offers award-winning, character-building books for children (6-12) to serve educational goals while supporting teachers, children, and families on topics such as giving/charity, financial literacy, autism and special needs acceptance, environmental learning, STEM, families and more. Includes free Teacher's Guides. Learn more - email info@wateringcanpress.com or by visiting their website.

Existing Membership Benefits

Member's Only Resource Library where unlimited numbers of your board and staff can gain access to sample policies, procedures, job descriptions, District MOU's, succession plan templates, past webinars and more. If you are an existing NSFA member who needs assistance accessing the website, email us at info@schoolfoundations.org.

Unlimited board member and staff access to twice-monthly Webinars. Topics include Board Development, Fundraising (Annual Plans, Major Gifts, Crowdfunding, Planned Giving, etc.), Marketing, Alumni and Community Engagement and more ($25 value each/ 18/year- $450)

National Conference Discount ($85 per attendee) and access to the Member Only Pre-Conference Session – Chart Your Course to Success with a Solid Strategic Plan. Mark your calendar for San Diego, CA- February 11-13, 2019 to connect with and learn from some of the best education foundation leaders in the country. Pre-Conference sessions are also available for Experienced Foundation leaders and New Foundations or New Foundation Leaders. Learn more or register.

Access to the Education Foundation Leader Training and Certification Program offered in partnership with National University. Gain the skills and knowledge required to effectively lead education foundations through courses on: Board Development, Financial Management, Legal Requirements, Organizational Planning and Leadership, Resources Development and Marketing, Educational Collaboration. The final class in this series begins October 2018. A new series resumes May 2019. Learn more.

15% Discount on NSFA's Board Member Training Program. The courses in this school are designed by and taught by subject matter experts in one of 5 areas: Governance, Resource Development, Strategic Planning, Education Foundation Programming and Education Foundation Relationships. They are a combination of recorded lecture, readings, examples and exercises to reinforce learning. All should take between 30 and 60 minutes to complete. Courses are $35 each. The member 15% discount coupon code can be found in the NSFA members section of the website. Bulk discounts are also available.

Discount on Firespring's integrated website, email and fundraising platforms. NSFA has teamed up with Firespring to offer you a cost-saving website program that tackles the specific goals, needs and challenges that education foundations face. As an NSFA member, you'll receive significant savings on a new website. Approximately $750 Savings. Visit firespring.org/NSFA to learn more and get started—you could have a robust new website in a matter of weeks.

First year discount on Bloomerang Donor Management System (Ave. $540 savings). Bloomerang has created a unique donor management system that guides you on the actions you should be taking to build donor loyalty and commitment, then gives you the tools you need to perform those crucial activities effectively and efficiently. Learn more.

Ability to nominate a candidate for National Superintendent of the Year Award. The purpose is to recognize a superintendent whose visionary leadership and collaboration, develops a partnership with their education foundation which provides every student the opportunity for success. The award includes two registrations to the 2018 NSFA National Conference in San Diego, Feb. 11-13 and an opportunity to present a workshop at the National Conference. (Deadline is October 30) Learn more or nominate YOUR superintendent for this prestigious award.

Additional Benefits

- Discount on upcoming National Education Foundation Benchmarking Survey ($150)
- FREE Job Postings on NSFA Website ($50 for 60 days for Non-members)
- Access to consulting services from NSFA Board, Staff and other national leaders
- Active Link to your website from NSFA's site with over 2,000 monthly views (Existing and Emerging Education Foundation Memberships)